LOT # 01

OCTOPUS

ARTIST: CARL ROBERTS

SIZE

Height: 80cm - Length:
50cm - Width: 26cm
(18.60kgs)

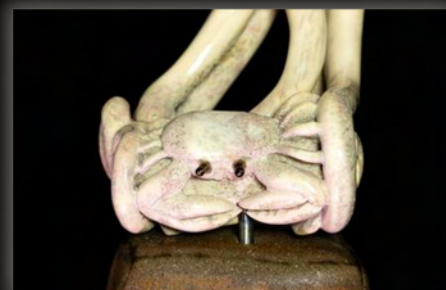

DESCRIPTION

Carl Roberts' "Octopus" is one of the most eye catching pieces of his storied career. Made from a Giraffe femur, the one of a kind art piece captivates the viewer and transforms a simple bone into a magnificent piece of art.

DIVING KINGFISHER

ARTIST: ALLEN HALLETT

SIZE:

Height: 30cm - Length:
30cm - Width: 20cm
(1.58kgs)

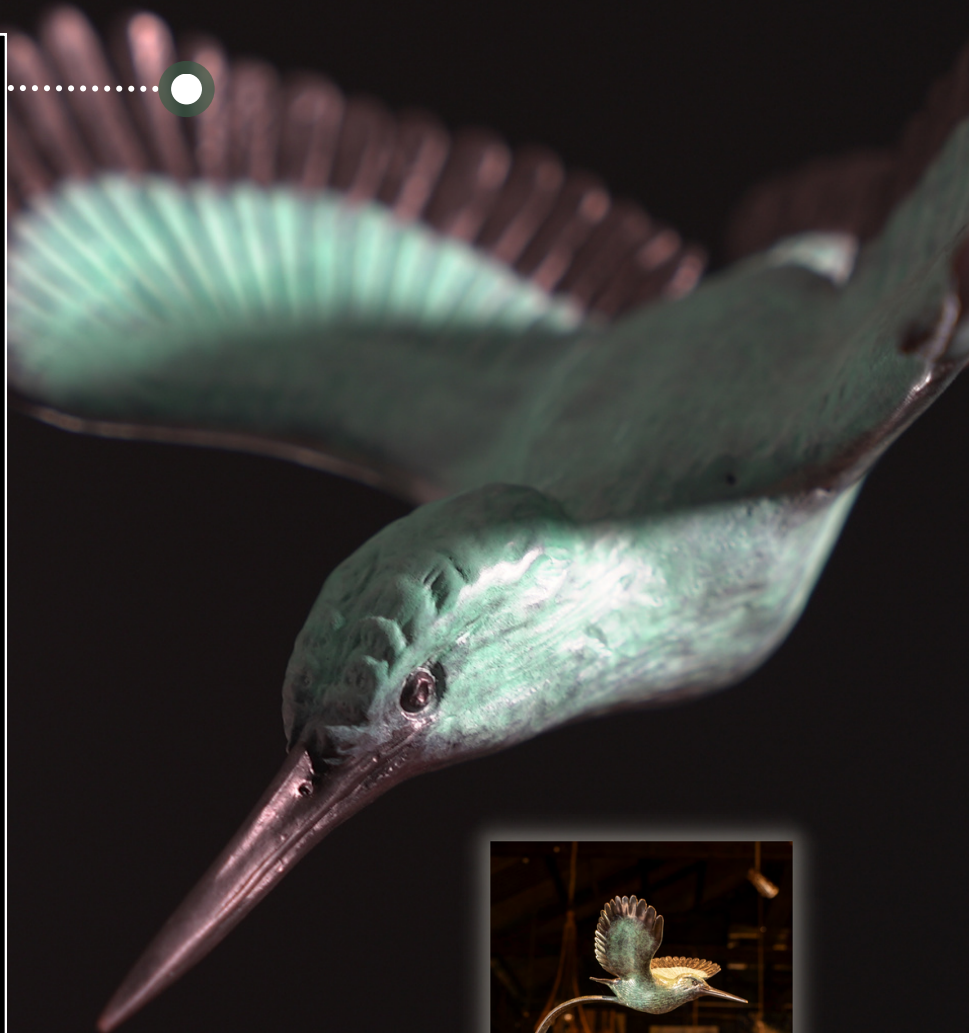

DESCRIPTION:

A stunning, contemporary take on this magnificent species. Malachite Kingfishers are one of the smallest, but deadliest. The alluring, blue-green patina'd kingfisher, is seen in it's dive for prey. The bird in flight has just changed direction, and the head movement and wingspan are catching that motion.

PYGMY FALCON

ARTIST: SARAH RICHARDS

SIZE:

Height: 10cm - Length:
17cm - Width: 4cm
(0.70kgs)

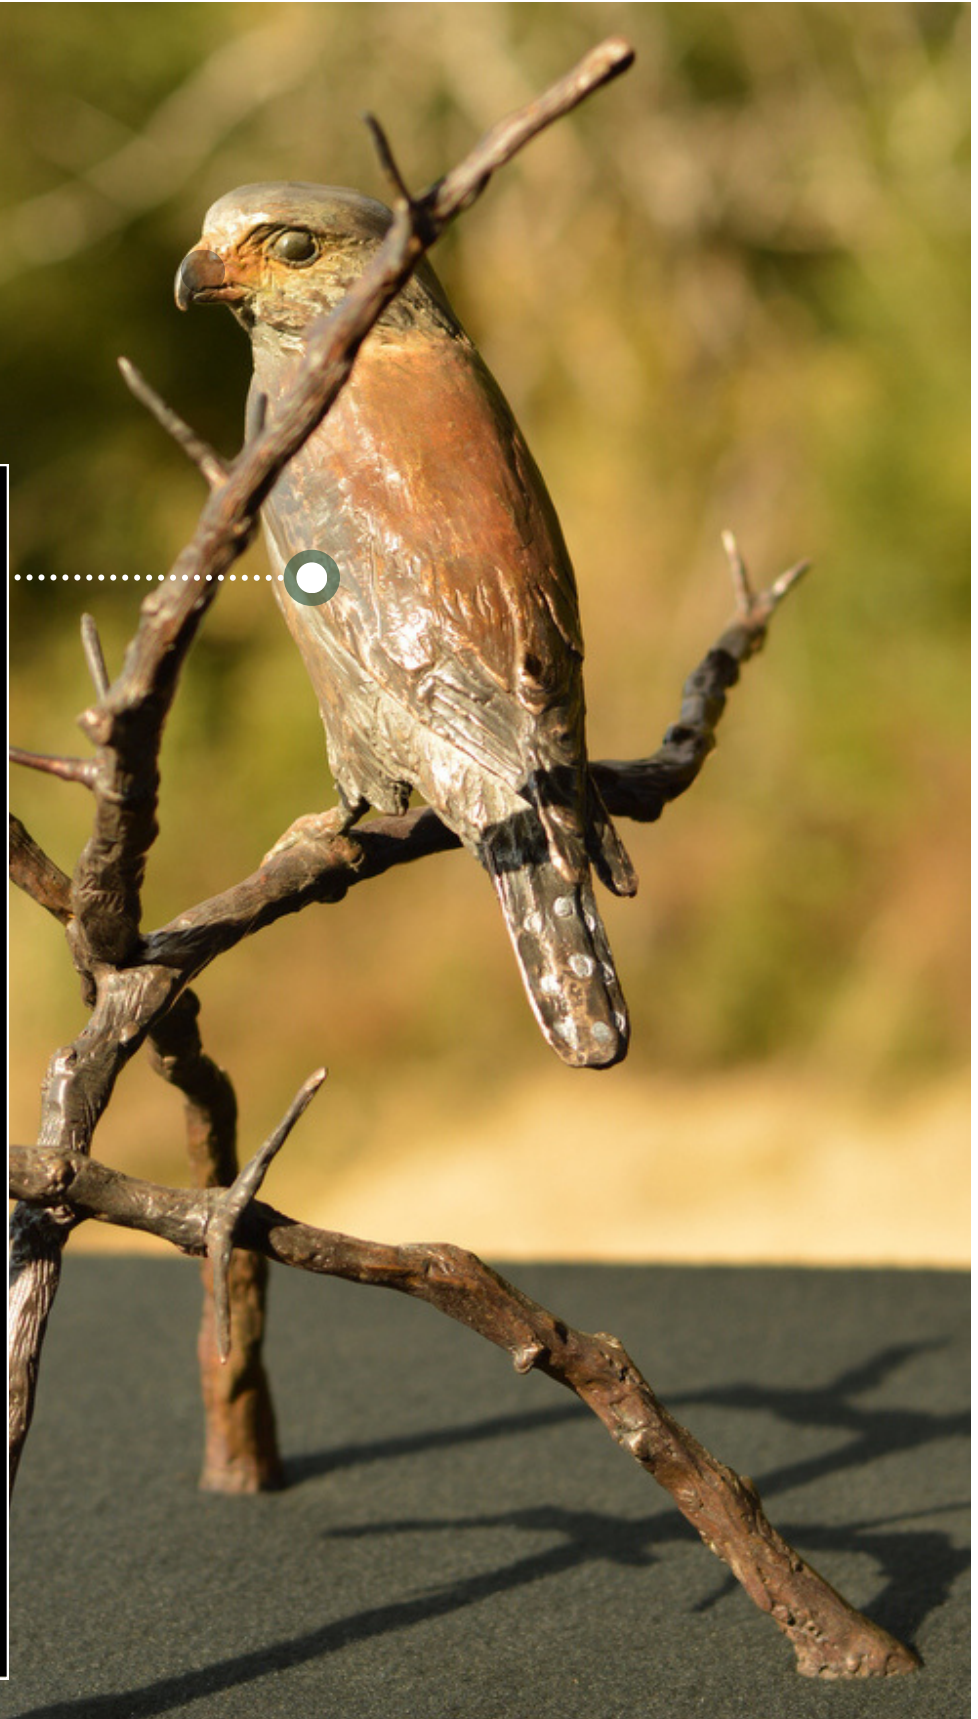

DESCRIPTION:

A masterclass in composition; the Falcon is perfectly in proportion, sitting amongst the thorns. The natural base allows the beautiful bronze to fit into any environment; it feels at home outside in a garden just as it does on a plinth in a gallery. Beautiful from all angles.

ARTIST: LLEWELYN DAVIES

SIZE:

Height: 72cm - Length:
27cm - Width: 27cm
(12.60kgs)

DESCRIPTION:

“Bolero” shows off the well-known artist’s complete control over the human form. This Flamenco dancer is caught in the moment, eyes closed as her beautiful posture captures the viewer’s attention. Poised in motion, the flaring skirt reminds us that a dancer demands attention.

FEATHERS AND FUR

ARTIST: ALLEN HALLETT

SIZE:

Height: 114cm - Length:
65cm - Width: 30cm
(47kgs)

DESCRIPTION:

Extremely limited edition piece, "Feathers & Fur" is a masterpiece and highlight of the artist's long career. Effortlessly capturing a moment of pure instinctual motion; the outstretched claws of the Caracal are just barely grasping on to the ill-fated Guinea Fowl. This is one of the last editions available.

LONE FOREST DOG

ARTIST: MICHELLE CLEVELAND

SIZE:
1.5M x 2.25 m

DESCRIPTION:

Michelle Cleveland's dramatic wild dog scene will be a statement piece in any home. Her mastery of paint and color helps her to capture the way light filters through an opening in the forest canopy, as the denser ground cover envelopes your path. Everything in the surrounding scene is done in beautiful color, as the wild dog seems to disappear in a wash of white.

DESCRIPTION:

Undoubtedly a statement piece, both by the young artist himself, and in any space it occupies. James, just 28 years old, purposefully combines incredible detail with rough, more undefined aspects, leaving the viewer to guess and engage. The figure is calm and poised (in direct contradiction to an actual free fall) and the "wings" are not attached, but merely held, as she tumbles through your imagination. DESCRIPTION

"Agape Effervescent"

The size and sheer beauty cannot be ignored in any environment, and is instantly recognisable as one of the artist's signature pieces. Built around the idea that we all mask ourselves, the holes in the mask seem to toy with the idea that our mask, and therefore lies, are breaking down, and our truth will come to light. ARTIST: ANGIE ARBUTHNOT

SIZE:

Height: 65cm - Length:
90cm - Width: 4cm

DESCRIPTION:

Angie Arbuthnot's "Baby Pangolin" beautifully captures the playful nature of its subject; the bright and varied colors demand attention, and the viewer almost can't help but smile. It engages without being cantankerous, and somehow feels hopeful. You can once again see her layers come through, and bring the piece, and pangolin, to life.

MEDIUM:

Acrylic on Canvas

THANK YOU

To all of the wonderful sponsors involved in the 2023 event -
this would not have been possible without you!

To name a few...

What an absolute pleasure it is to walk alongside you. May our efforts contribute to the conservation of South Africa's most endangered mammals.

This is something real.

Something special.

Something epic!
